FROM US, WITH LOVE

Twenty-five years ago we promised each other a lifetime. We had no idea how full that lifetime would be — of early mornings and late conversations, of a home that grew louder and warmer every year.

Every one of you is woven into that story. You laughed with us, stood by us, and fed us when we forgot to eat.

So come — not to watch us celebrate, but to celebrate with us. It would not be our Silver Jubilee without you.
